But here's the good news +1-~866-558-3017 Priceline doesn't actually own or operate any rental cars itself. Priceline does not own, operate, or maintain any rental cars. +1-~866-558-3017 Instead, Priceline acts as a booking middleman. You choose the price and vehicle type, pay Priceline upfront (sometimes with a discount), +1-~866-558-3017 and then Priceline sends your reservation to the actual rental company. When you show up at the counter, you're renting from that company +1-~866-558-3017 not from Priceline +1-~866-558-3017. This matters because +1-~866-558-3017 the rental company's own policies apply to you: their deposit requirements, their age restrictions, their fuel policy, and their cancellation terms. Priceline can't override them. +1-~866-558-3017 If you need to change or cancel your booking, you often have to go through Priceline 's customer service first, which adds an extra layer.
